WHAT'S THE PROCESS?

The First Step in Strategic Planning

WHAT IS AN SSP CHECKUP?

The pace of business is accelerating and all too often you have no time or resources to step back, away from the day-to-day pressures, to take a good, hard look at the health of your organization.

The SSP check-up is the first step in the strategic planning process. It comprises the internal analysis necessary to understand your organization and its capabilities.

We will assemble a team of professionals experienced in your business to review your supply chain from top to bottom. We will look at infrastructure, processes, technology, and culture. We will provide you with a comprehensive review identifying strengths and weaknesses, and we will flag specific areas that we believe place your organization at risk.

This process will typically require 5-7 man-days of onsite interviews and 2-3 man-days for analysis and report generation. We commit to delivering a final report within 30 calendar days of engagement.
